Brushing Day During Shedding Season

25 seconds | 5 activities | Real phone-video look | 9:16 Reel

VIDEO IDEA

Spring shedding season on the back patio: flopping over when he sees the brush, brushing his back, the growing fur pile, a belly brush, and the fluffy result.

TIMELINE

0-5s	Sees the brush
5-10s	Brushing the back
10-15s	Fur tumbleweed
15-20s	Belly brush
20-25s	Fresh and fluffy

FULL 25-SECOND PROMPT (only if your tool can make 25s in one go)

A 25-second shot on an iPhone held by the owner, vertical 9:16, 1x lens, handheld with small natural shakes, auto-exposure and autofocus, real-time speed with no slow motion, available natural light only, no color grading, ordinary lived-in home, normal phone video quality - looks like an unedited home video posted on Facebook. The dog is a real adult male German Shepherd with a black saddle, tan legs and tan face, slightly darker muzzle, upright ears, wearing a worn brown leather collar with a small metal tag, natural slightly messy coat with a little loose fur on the shoulders. It shows 5 short everyday moments joined with simple hard cuts. 0-5s (Sees the brush): Back patio, late morning, bright overcast daylight, grey concrete slab and a plastic chair. The owner's hand holds out a wire slicker brush. The dog walks over, sniffs the brush, then flops down onto its side on the concrete with a thud and waits. Sound: birds, the dog's thud and sigh, owner says "good boy, lie down". 5-10s (Brushing the back): Same patio, bright overcast light. The dog lies on its side while the owner's hand pulls the slicker brush in long strokes along its back. Thick clumps of pale undercoat come out with every stroke and collect in the brush bristles. Sound: brush scratching through fur, relaxed panting. 10-15s (Fur tumbleweed): Same concrete patio, overcast daylight, a light breeze. Camera points down at a growing pile of loose tan and grey fur on the concrete next to the dog's back. A few tufts roll away across the patio in the breeze while the dog lifts its head to look. Sound: breeze, owner laughing "that's a whole other dog". 15-20s (Belly brush): Same patio, bright overcast light. The dog rolls onto its back with its front paws folded, and the owner's hand gently brushes the fur on its chest and belly. One back leg twitches and kicks in the air, and the dog's mouth hangs open in a relaxed pant. Sound: soft brushing, leg thumping the concrete, owner laughing. 20-25s (Fresh and fluffy): Same patio, overcast daylight. The dog stands up looking noticeably fluffier, gives a full-body shake that sends a few loose hairs floating, then walks over to the big fur pile and sniffs it curiously. Loose fur still clings to the brush lying on the plastic chair beside it. Sound: shaking, tags jingling, owner says "all done".

AVOID / NEGATIVE PROMPT (paste into the negative box, or add "Avoid: ..." at the end) cinematic, slow motion, lens flare, golden glow, dramatic lighting, studio lighting, color grading, film look, perfect shiny fur, glowing eyes, human-like facial expressions, smooth drone or gimbal movement, background music, text, subtitles, watermark, extra legs, extra tail, morphing, warped paws, plastic-looking skin or fur

CLIP-BY-CLIP PROMPTS (recommended)

Make each clip separately, then join them in order. Every prompt already includes the same dog and camera wording.

FACEBOOK CAPTION

Brushed him for 20 minutes and got enough fur for a second dog.
Shedding season is no joke.

HOW TO MAKE IT LOOK REAL

Use a real photo	Biggest realism boost: use Image-to-Video and upload the same real German Shepherd photo for every clip. Same photo = same dog in all 5 clips.
Make 5 short clips	Generate each clip (5 seconds) separately with its own prompt, then join them in CapCut with simple hard cuts. If your tool can make 25 seconds at once, use the full 25s prompt instead.
Pick the most natural	Generate 2-3 versions of each clip and keep the one where the dog moves most naturally. Delete any clip with weird legs, tail or face.
Keep the real sound	Keep the natural sounds (paws, tags, panting, owner's voice). If you add a trending Facebook sound, keep it quiet underneath.
No filters	Do not add filters, slow motion or fancy transitions - real home videos don't have them.
