Teaching My Son to Throw the Ball

25 seconds | 5 activities | Real phone-video look | 9:16 Reel

VIDEO IDEA

Dad teaches our son to throw for the dog: the grip lesson, a very short first throw, a slobbery return, the first real throw and a tired rest on the back steps.

TIMELINE

0-5s	Grip lesson
5-10s	Short first throw
10-15s	Slobbery return
15-20s	First real throw
20-25s	Rest on the steps

FULL 25-SECOND PROMPT (only if your tool can make 25s in one go)

A 25-second shot on an iPhone held by the owner, vertical 9:16, 1x lens, handheld with small natural shakes, auto-exposure and autofocus, real-time speed with no slow motion, available natural light only, no color grading, ordinary lived-in home, normal phone video quality - looks like an unedited home video posted on Facebook. The dog is a real adult male German Shepherd with a black saddle, tan legs and tan face, slightly darker muzzle, upright ears, wearing a worn brown leather collar with a small metal tag, natural slightly messy coat with a little loose fur on the shoulders. It shows 5 short everyday moments joined with simple hard cuts. 0-5s (Grip lesson): Backyard, late afternoon, warm natural light, patchy green grass and a wooden fence. A boy about seven holds a yellow tennis ball while dad's hands adjust his fingers around it. The dog crouches a few steps away on the grass, staring at the ball, front legs low and tail held high. Sound: birds, dad says "hold it like this", the dog whining with excitement. 5-10s (Short first throw): Same backyard, late afternoon light. The boy swings his arm and the ball drops only a few feet in front of him and bounces once. The dog trots over, grabs it easily and looks at the boy with the ball in its mouth, tail wagging. Sound: ball thud, boy laughing "oops", dad says "that's okay, try again". 10-15s (Slobbery return): Backyard, late afternoon sun low behind the fence, long shadows on the grass. The dog drops the wet ball right on the boy's sneakers. The boy picks it up with two fingers, makes a face, and wipes it on his shorts while the dog bounces back a step, ready. Sound: boy saying "ew, it's so slimy", dad laughing, panting. 15-20s (First real throw): Same backyard, late afternoon light. The boy steps forward and throws hard, and the ball flies all the way across the yard. The dog sprints after it across the patchy grass, scoops it up near the fence and spins around to run back. Sound: boy cheering "I did it", dad clapping, paws pounding the grass. 20-25s (Rest on the steps): Back porch steps, early evening, soft fading daylight, a garden hose coiled nearby. The boy sits on the wooden steps and the dog lies on the step below him, panting with its tongue out. The boy rests his hand on the dog's head and scratches behind its ear. Sound: crickets starting, heavy panting, boy saying "good boy, we did good".

AVOID / NEGATIVE PROMPT (paste into the negative box, or add "Avoid: ..." at the end) cinematic, slow motion, lens flare, golden glow, dramatic lighting, studio lighting, color grading, film look, perfect shiny fur, glowing eyes, human-like facial expressions, smooth drone or gimbal movement, background music, text, subtitles, watermark, extra legs, extra tail, morphing, warped paws, plastic-looking skin or fur

CLIP-BY-CLIP PROMPTS (recommended)

Make each clip separately, then join them in order. Every prompt already includes the same dog and camera wording.

HOW TO MAKE IT LOOK REAL

Use a real photo	Biggest realism boost: use Image-to-Video and upload the same real German Shepherd photo for every clip. Same photo = same dog in all 5 clips.
Make 5 short clips	Generate each clip (5 seconds) separately with its own prompt, then join them in CapCut with simple hard cuts. If your tool can make 25 seconds at once, use the full 25s prompt instead.
Pick the most natural	Generate 2-3 versions of each clip and keep the one where the dog moves most naturally. Delete any clip with weird legs, tail or face.
Keep the real sound	Keep the natural sounds (paws, tags, panting, owner's voice). If you add a trending Facebook sound, keep it quiet underneath.
No filters	Do not add filters, slow motion or fancy transitions - real home videos don't have them.
