Clip 4 of 20 · 1:30–2:00 · What Floats?

Vertical 9:16, 1080×1920, 30 seconds, 24 fps. 2D hand-drawn-look cartoon in classic Curious George storybook style: clean dark outlines, flat bright colors, soft shading. Setting: a sunny summer lakeside park with a bright blue lake, big leafy trees and a yellow wooden dock. Keep faces and action in the center. No on-screen text, no subtitles, no watermark.

Characters: GEORGE (small brown monkey, tan face, big round eyes, curl of hair on top, no tail).

No double: only ONE of each character in every shot (one George, never two or more). Every shot happens once, in order: no repeats, no loops, and do not replay the previous clip. Negative prompt: duplicate characters, twins, clones, split screen, repeated or looping frames.

0–6s: Dock-level close-up: GEORGE beside his red bucket and a toy-block chassis, rubbing his chin, thinking.

6–11s: A thought bubble appears above him showing a small wooden boat floating. His eyes light up.

11–17s: GEORGE climbs down into the lake, chest-deep next to the dock.

17–23s: A flat wooden plank floats past him, bobbing on top of the water.

23–30s: GEORGE shrugs and spreads his hands, confused: why does wood float when the blocks sank?

Audio: thoughtful woodwind music, soft water lapping, a curious monkey 'ooh?'.
